Kt's Story:

Spirited, sassy and soulful, 22-year-old, Irish Artist, Kt, is no stranger to the entertainment space. Born in Australia and raised in Ireland, she trained in dance, drama, classical voice, piano and composition. Growing up listening to, and being influenced by vocal heavyweights such as Amy Winehouse, Imelda May and Etta James, and then recently graduating with a degree in Popular Music from Leeds Conservatoire, Kt is a singer songwriter who sounds completely in control of her sound and creative vision.

Following her self-love anthem, I'm Damn Fine, Kt is ramping up boss-energy in her new attitude-filled, break-up banger, Fickle Friend, aimed at a friend who has broken her trust. This new sassy relatable cut features Kt's trademark soulful vocals which are accompanied by fresh Pop Soul beats. Confident songcraft sparkles with energy, and the chorus is an incredible earworm too. Wanting the track to sound live, she teamed up with Irish producer, Dave Skelton, who completely understood her vision.

Channelling empowerment and 'unapologetic self-confidence through candid lyrics' (Notion), Kt's 'unique style and powerful vocals make for an incredibly uplifting and relatable experience.' (Earmilk)
